

RTC takes over Peoples Federal

BY ELLIS CUEVAS
The Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) was appointed receiver for the Bay St. Louis Peoples Federal Savings Bank (Peoples Federal) on Friday by the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS).

David Treutel Sr., Peoples Federal president for the past 20 years, said, "A group of about 40 banking officials walked in at 2:30 p.m. Friday without any notice. Our problem resulted from major changes in the accounting regulations, a poor real estate market and new higher capital requirements."

A news release from the Resolution Trust Corporation late Friday stated, "A new federal mutual association was created, Peoples Federal Savings Association, (after the takeover) to assume all deposits and certain assets and liabilities of Peoples Federal." The news release emphasized that deposits would continue to be federally insured and that Peoples Federal will maintain normal working business hours and operations on Monday.

All services are to be available to customers except borrowing.

A story in the Jackson Clarion-Ledger Saturday stated, "The OTS in a prepared release claimed the institution's deterioration was caused by bad management and poor asset quality."

Peoples showed losses totaling $2.2 million at the end of the third quarter of 1990, and did not have capital to cover those losses. The OTS claims that $661,000 of those losses resulted from "imprudent speculation in the financial options markets."

"The OTS also claims Peoples improperly evaluated its assets, and as a result, understated its loss reserves."

Wayne Robideaux, of Lafayette, La., is the managing agent representing the Resolution Trust Corporation while the RTC negotiates a permanent resolution for the troubled thrift.

Business was as usual Friday afternoon after the banking officials arrived.

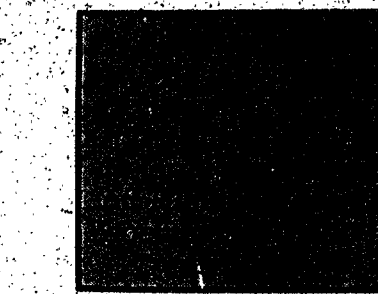

Treutel said, as CEO, he was the only person released by the takeover, in addition to Peoples Federal's board of directors.

Treutel stated, "We had some problems, but, were working them out and getting back into shape."

"We were shrinking in size, about $10 million in the last 18 months. The facility has been profitable for the last couple of months after the big write down during the October and November examination by banking officials," Treutel added.

The news release said People's Federal now has four single family foreclosed homes on the books, in addition to one apartment complex in Wave-land, Treutel said.

"We have plenty of liquid assets. I felt they (the regulators), are gun shy because of the advise during the transition period and RTC officials accepted his offer.

State unemployment increases; local jobless rate remains stable

BY TRACI BONNEY

While the unemployment rate rose throughout Mississippi from November to December, it remained at the same level in Hancock County.

The statewide unemployment rate rose from 7.4 percent in November to 8.0 percent in December, while in Hancock County the rate stayed at 7.1 percent.

The rate in Harrison County dropped slightly from 6.4 to 6.3 percent, while in Stone County it rose from 8.2 to 8.6 percent and in Pearl River County is dropped from 10.6 to 10.5 percent.

Harrison ranks 12th in the state by county; Hancock ranks 21st; Stone ranks 36th; and Pearl River is above the half-way mark at 54th in the ranking. Of the four counties, only Harrison and Hancock remain below the state average.

Mississippi Employment Security Commission Interim Director Liston L. Thomasson said the December rate was the highest for Mississippi since June 1990.

"This monthly rise of 0.6 percentage points is more than any November-to-December rise since the 1979 rise of 0.8 percentage points. At that time Mississippi was suffering significant declines in manufacturing."

Mississippi's civilian labor force grew by 16,600 persons since November because there were more people employed as well as more who were unemployed. The labor force is larger by 13,100 compared to December 1989. In December fewer people were employed in agricultural jobs but more worked in nonagricultural jobs.

The state's nonagricultural establishments furnished 1,200 fewer jobs than in November but 4,100 more than in December of last year.

Manufacturing industries in Mississippi suffered a large number of layoffs with an estimated 240,000 workers holding manufacturing jobs in December. This is 2,100 below November and 2,400 below December 1989.

Most manufacturing industry groups suffered losses compared to November. Industrial machinery and chemicals were the only groups to show employment gains over last month.

"In 1991, unless world conditions improve, we can expect the regular seasonal changes with an overall rise in unemployment levels," Thomasson said. "There seems to be little to stop these economic downturns brought on by world economic conditions, factors which are beyond the influence of Mississippi leaders and employers."

Senate update

Absentee voting bill passed

BY TRACI BONNEY

A Senate bill passed this week that allows absentee voting by all residents who are out of their home county during an election, according to Sen. Vic Frankiewicz.

He said that before the measure was passed, people could vote by absentee ballot for a limited number of reasons, such as being ill or out of the county on business. If the bill is signed into law, anyone who will be out of the county during an election may cast an absentee vote, but it must be done in person at the county courthouse on designated days. Frankiewicz said this will allow those to cast a ballot who may not have been able to vote absentee, and will also eliminate possible fraud by not allowing mail-in voting.

Another measure passed provides for non-partisan judicial elections. This will keep party politics from influencing elections for judges, the senator said.

The Senate also passed a measure tightening regulations on live-bait shrimpers. Frankiewicz said the intent of the measure was to prevent abuse by live-bait shrimpers of their ability to shrimp in waters closed to other shrimpers.

The measure passed 25-21, with Frankiewicz being the only Coast senator to vote against it.

Calgon Carbon ground breaking held Thursday

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Ground breaking ceremonies were held Thursday for Hancock County's newest industry, Calgon Carbon Corporation.

The new facility located at Port Bienville Industrial Park, named Calgon Carbon's Pearl River plant, will cost an estimated $63 million and will create 60 jobs. It is expected to be completed by the end of 1991.

The new Pearl River plant will increase the firm's annual production capacity of activated carbon by 30 million pounds.

Ronald Cuevas, president of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, said he is looking forward to the county's having a long and healthy relationship with the new industry.

Thomas A. McConomy, president and CEO of Calgon Carbon said, "We chose this location to add to our production capability for two major reasons. First, it enables us to be closer to our customers located in the Gulf Coast Region, and second, the site is well situated for the transportation of raw materials and finished product."

Of course, once we chose the site as a potential location, the excellent cooperation we received from the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, and the Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development gave us the added assurance that we had made a good choice," add McConomy.

Anthony P. Wierbowski, plant manager for the Hancock facility stated, "One third of the 100 acres purchased by Calgon

Taylor named to Armed Services subcommittee

Rep. Gene Taylor received a new subcommittee assignment this week that will allow him to have a say in virtually all weapons purchases for the military.

Taylor was appointed to the Procurement and Military Nuclear Systems Subcommittee of the Armed Services Committee. He retained a spot on the Armed Services Seapower Subcommittee.

"The war in the Persian Gulf makes these two assignments particularly important," Taylor said. "I'll work to ensure that our military personnel are armed with precisely the right equipment to keep America strong and that the Fifth Congressional District continues to play a vital role in this nation's defense."

The Procurement Subcommittee has legislative jurisdiction over the annual authorization for procurement of military weapon systems and components. The Seapower Subcommittee has legislative jurisdiction over procurement and construction of naval vessels and other Navy weapons.

Penrose seeks re-election

Linda Penrose announces her candidacy for re-election as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District.

Penrose and her husband, Norvin, members of Christ Episcopal Church, are both graduates of Bay High. She is the mother of five children. Mrs. Michele Elchos, a 1983 Bay High graduate; Henry J. Heitzman III, a 1986 Bay High graduate; and Mary, Helen and Belle Penrose, grades 9, 7 and 5, respectively, at Bay Senior High, Bay Junior High and Bay Middle School.

She has 20 years legal secretarial experience and is now an administrative secretary with the occupational and environmental health services division of Johnson Controls World Services (formerly Pan Am World Services) at Stennis Space Center.

Penrose is completing her first five-year term as a member of the board of trustees for the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District. She is a member of the Mississippi School Boards Association and the Gulf Coast School Boards Association a member of the Board of Commissioners for the Waveland Housing Authority since 1983; and chairman of the redistricting committee for the City of Waveland. Was named to Who's Who of the Gulf Coast, 1979-1980.

As a member in the Harrison-Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association, she has served as 1982-1983 national representative and 1983-1984 as president.

She was named 1984-1985 Legal Secretary of the Year Chairman for the Mississippi Association of Legal Secretaries and was 1985-1986 finance chairman.

Penrose was a member of the 1986 Superintendent Search Committee; Chapter I Parent Action Council and Waveland Elementary Computer Advisory Board.

She was president of the Waveland Elementary PTO for the 1985-1986 School Year after serving one year as treasurer and was chairman of the building program for the Educational Needs Assessment Committee in 1981.

From 1983 until December 1990, she was a member of the Planning and Zoning Commission for the City of Waveland, serving as secretary from 1983-1988 and as chairman since 1988. She continues to be a coach, manager and sponsor for Little League Girls Softball.

Mrs. Penrose has completed numerous continuing education seminars.

"I pledged in my 1986 campaign that our children would be considered first, and that politics would have no place in our school district. I kept my word."

"Standing up for our children and this district is just a way of life for me—my children have been a part of this district for the past 19 years, and will continue to be until 1998.

"As a mother, wife and professional, I understand the problems and difficulties of our children and this district and know from first-hand experience how to solve them.

"Our children deserve the opportunity to make something of themselves, to feel their self-worth, and are entitled to receive the best education this district can provide.

"I have a desire to continually better the educational processes for the children and young adults of this district, and the experience to continue serving you as your representative and a dedicated board member," she said.

The election will be March 2 for all voters living inside the Bay-Waveland School District, but outside the Bay St. Louis city limits.

Senate

"I voted against it because I felt it unfairly targeted live-bait shrimpers," he said. "Yes, there are some abuses going on, but I think the actions in this measure are fairly punitive against these shrimpers."

The Senate voted to re-create the marine Conservation Commission, which was taken out of existence during past consolidation efforts. Frankiewicz said this commission, which will act as a local regulatory board in matters concerning seafood, will not be a new staff. People already associated with the Bureau of Marine Resources will be appointed to the commission.

Out-of-state hunting license fees were increased. Frankiewicz said a main concern of opponents to this measure is that Mississippi and its neighboring states will get into a "fee war" where each state will continually increase its out-of-state fees to compete with the other.

The Senate also eliminated the requirement to file a homestead exemption form each year, making it necessary to re-file only in the event of a change in status.

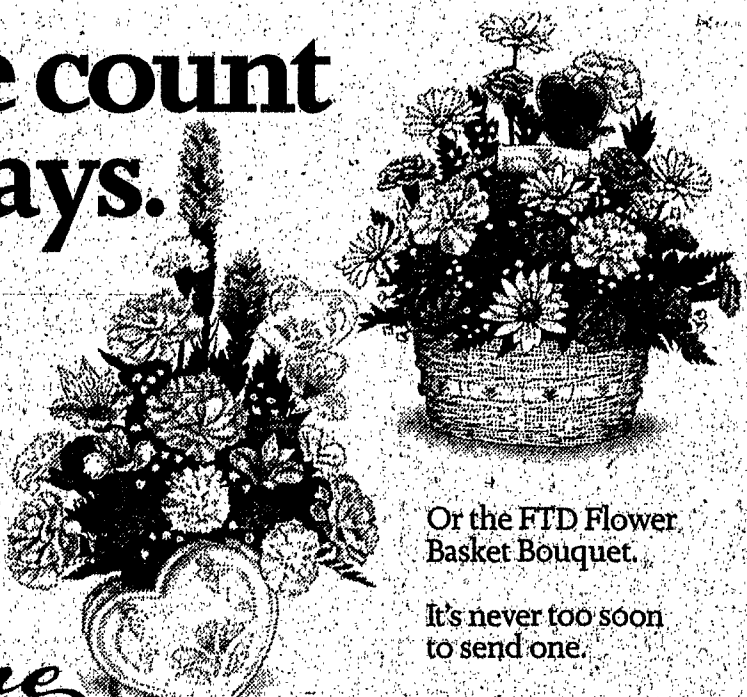

Another measure passed gave local authorities the right to continue controlling what companies will and will not collect and dispose of household waste. This measure was passed along with the extension until July 1992 of a moratorium on landfills. Frankiewicz said these things were done to help counties prevent large companies from getting monopolies on the local household waste management business.

The Senate also took the 10 percent county tax raise cap off, which Frankiewicz said will force the counties that have abused this limit in the past to set tax raises with the needs of the county and the voters' concerns in mind. He said those county governments that have automatically set a 10 percent raise in the past will now be accountable to the voters for the increase they set.

There are just three more days of Mardi Gras celebrating left for 1991.

This afternoon at 1 p.m. the St. Paul's Carnival Association in Pass Christian will roll on a new shorter route this year.

The new route has created a lot of discussion and there are even parking restrictions this year.

Pass Christian's parade is probably the largest on the Gulf Coast and I would suggest those planning on going to the parade to get there early.

The parade is set to travel Davis Avenue to the Scenic Drive to U.S.-90, to Church St., and will disband at St. Louis Avenue.

There will be no parking within 50 feet of the parade route and there is a ban on parking before 7 a.m. this morning.

As most of you know, there is construction work being performed on the Highway, so this will add to the congestion of the parade.

Police are asking folks to leave as soon as they have viewed the parade in order to avoid congestion.

On Fat Tuesday, Mardi Gras Day, the Krewe of Real People will roll through the streets of Bay St. Louis.

Royalty for this year's parade are King and Queen Queen and Pedro Williams.

This parade also has some route changes this year.

The floats will begin lining up at 11 a.m. at Commerce Park and will roll on Necaise Street at 1 p.m.

It will turn down Main Street to Beach Boulevard, one block to Court Street to Second Street and pass in front of Bay City Hall.

From there the parade will proceed to Union Street, to Blaize (Third) Street, to Washington, to Old Spanish Trail and then to its origin.

I hope everyone will get out and have a safe and enjoyable Mardi Gras.

It is always good for someone with a National title to visit Hancock County.

On Saturday, American Legion National Commander Robert Turner visited Standard Post 58 for a noon luncheon, (it was really a feast) and that night he was an honored guest for Waveland's Post 77's annual Mardi Gras celebration.

Commander Turner is from the state of Georgia and has really been traveling as the American Legion's leader this year.

Early on, he visited our troops in the Middle East to let them know that the American Legion is backing their efforts.

I wish Commander Turner the best in his travels as the leader of the American Legion this year.

Plans for Mississippi's 175th birthday underway

On Dec. 10, 1817, the state in which we live officially became Mississippi. It was on that date that Mississippi was admitted to the union as the 20th state.

For nearly 175 years, we have seen successes, setbacks, pride and promise unfold before our eyes.

A lot has changed, but one thing that is not that much different is that Mississippi is still a land of natural beauty, family ties, hard work and dedication to its people.

Next year marks the 175th anniversary of Mississippi's statehood, but we can start planning for our commemoration of this important event much sooner.

We should celebrate that fact and all that we have built and done. We ought to use this occasion to rejoice and to plan, to look back with pride and a sense of lessons learned. We also should look forward with anticipation and an understanding of work still to be done.

We should open our arms and invite all those with Mississippi roots to come home, to celebrate our 175 years of statehood.

Before long, I will be naming a volunteer commission on Mississippi's 175th birthday.

Research works.

As we approach the century and three-quarter mark of our statehood, there is much good to reflect on. Our children are getting a better education; more people have access to quality health care; our businesses are stronger; our universities and community colleges are more competitive.

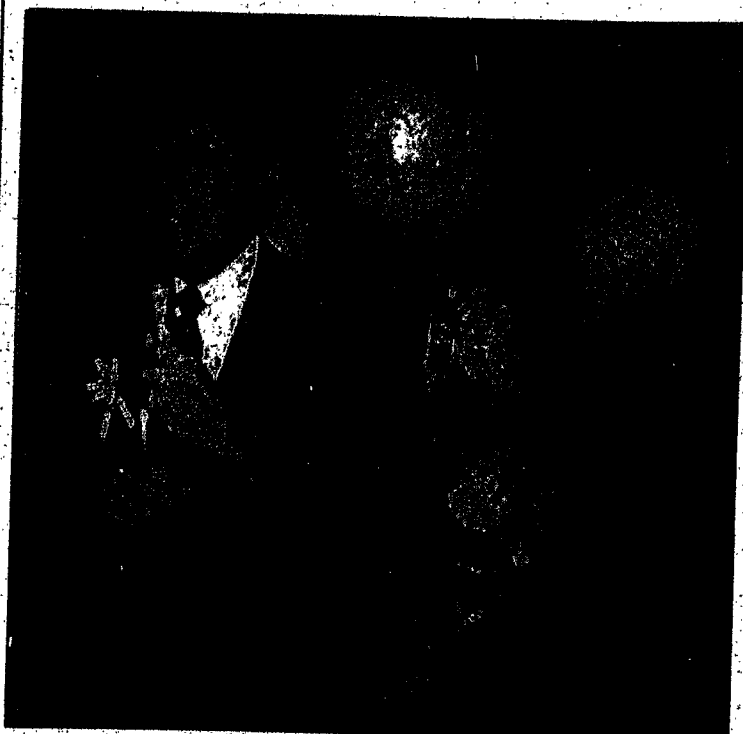

Our highways are better; many more people are working; more people are being trained and are literate; fewer children are dying at birth than ever before; we are helping more of those in need of mental health services; we are protecting our environment better; our prisons are being run better; more drugs are being seized; more drunk drivers are being taken off the roads; and more Mississippians are full participants in our economy and in our society.

None of this means our jobs are done, that we can rest, that there is no more work in store.

It does mean that we can face the future with confidence, that we can approach our tasks with eager hands and glad hearts.

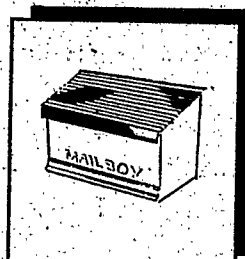

And it does mean that we can celebrate Mississippi, from the gentle rolling hills to our golden Gulf Coast; from the fertile, rich Delta to the industry of northern Mississippi; from the campus of every university to the corporate boardrooms throughout our heritage-rich state.

Let us celebrate our history. Let us celebrate our state. Most of all, let us celebrate our future.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Peace is not appeasement; those who face conflict need support

Dear Editor:

Along with millions of other Americans, I pray throughout each day for peace, not appeasement, in the Middle East. Saddam Hussein has proved over a period of many years that he ruthlessly covets the land and resources of his sovereign neighbors.

It is ridiculous to think that our turning away will cause him to abandon his avowed ambitions. "Out of sight, out of mind" is not going to work this time for us. The whole world is literally in jeopardy, and whether we wish to be world leaders or not, we cannot shirk the responsibility.

I am particularly concerned about the antiwar "peace at any price" protests being held (organized) in this country. Equally disturbing is the amount of media coverage accorded these protests. One is given the impression that the numbers of people involved are significant. Percentage wise this is just not so; we are now a nation of almost 250 million people!

Although the very basis of our political freedoms grants these people every right to express their views, I sincerely wish they would consider the effects of their actions on the rest of the world.

Unfortunately, Saddam Hussein does not reason the same way we do. In this country, the protesters are viewed as citizens exercising their right to free speech and assembly. Conversely, Saddam Hussein views such protests as proof of our President's "weakness" and inability to control his people.

The dictators of Iraq is delighted that some of us appear to support his actions; therefore, he is encouraged to continue his aggression. In essence, rather than bringing about peace, the protesters are helping to prolong the war, the death, and the destruction.

It was once considered treason to give "aid and comfort to the enemy." It is my fervent hope that every citizen will carefully consider the ultimate consequences of his/her actions.

No one in this country wants war, but to allow a man of such proven menace to go unchecked is unthinkable. We have to accept that we are now at war. We have an enormous number of men and women who are truly in harm's way in order to protect the principles upon which this nation is founded and to protect us.

It is even more terrible to think they must carry the added burden that we at home neither appreciate nor comprehend their sacrifice. It seems reasonable that our troops should be able to expect our united support.

To reiterate: Peace is not appeasement. Hitler, in World War II, should have taught us that lesson. So long as unconscionable men such as Saddam Hussein are loose in the world, we must face the fact that merely being against war and for peace is inadequate to resolve this kind of terrible conflict.

A sacrifice must be made. I pray to God that those who make that sacrifice for us will not be asked to do so without our full and most grateful approbation.

Sincerely,
Carol Vegas
Bay St. Louis

Taylor our best D.C. politician in years

Dear Editor

I can't believe the letters I see in the paper concerning our Representative Gene Taylor! He is the best politician in Washington we have had in years! Also, the most patriotic in the true sense of the word.

Do some people really believe because he voted not to send our boys into battle and believed they were safer if we tried harder, that he didn't care? Who cares most—those who start wars, or those who try to negotiate peace, but when that fails and war is started, supports it to the fullest?

For heaven's sake, quit trying to make something political out of the lives of our fighting men. I'm proud of Gene, and proud of the way he voted to protect our men.

Yours truly
Eve McDonald

Garcia not alone in desire to oust Saddam

Dear Editor,

In my letter to the Echo of January 27, I mistakenly used the words "natural born" when I should have said "native born."

When I realized my mistake, it was too late, as the Echo had already gone to press.

If Nicholas Haas feels I slighted him because he was born by Caesar's son, I apologize, as I have great grandchildren born the same way.

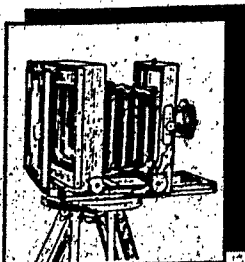

As for Saddam Hussein doing himself in, I hope he does not take as long as Hitler did. A bully, whether on the playground, school yard, or country, must be stopped.

If my faith in my president and my country is classed as "hunger for vengeance," then so be it.

After reading the Letters to the Editor of February 7, I find I am not alone in my so-called "hunger."

Respectfully,
Nina Strickland Garcia

Miss Shirley Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A.P. Smith, recently gained distinction as a freshman by being chosen a member of the varsity debating squad at the University of Mississippi. The University Varsity Squad, which is composed mainly of junior and senior law students, contains three complete teams that debate colleges and universities throughout the South. Shirley started her debating career at Bay High School in 1938, when, as a sophomore, she was the youngest member of the team that won the State Championship. This is the second time a Bay High student made a college varsity team in her freshman year. Miss Mildred Cagle, also a member of the 1938 State Championship Team, made the varsity squad at Mississippi Southern College in 1939.

Games and track meet practice at St. Stanislaus College tomorrow. The public is invited to come to the college grounds tomorrow (Sunday) at 2 o'clock p.m., at which time there will be a practice track and field meet between the St. Stanislaus boys who are trying out for positions on the track team. As the people of Bay St. Louis have never witnessed in their midst a track meet, this will give an idea how these events will be run when the collegians will meet the athletes of other institutions later in dual competition.

The apartment unit in Waveland was 80% occupied and beginning to show a profit, Treutel said.

Treutel reported that all Peoples Federal employees are still working according to the announcement made by RTC officials Friday afternoon.

Robideaux indicated the institution will be sold. His job is to run Peoples Federal and get the institution ready for sale by selling off poor assets and writing off or writing down bad assets such as bad loans.

A notice was posted on the door reporting Peoples Federal was in the possession charge of the Resolution Trust Corporation as conservator appointed by the Office of Thrift Supervision, Department of Treasury.

The RTC was established under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989.

Peoples Federal is not affiliated in any way with The Peoples Bank of Biloxi which has a branch in Bay St. Louis.

ON PATROL

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

Investigator Matt Karl of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department reported Thursday the arrests of two adults and a 17-year-old juvenile on charges of possession of burglary tools and attempted burglary.

Karl said the arrests were made between 10:30 and 11 Wednesday night after a 911 call reported a possible burglary in progress at a Lakeshore residence. Deputy George Burleson and Auxiliary Deputy Nathan "Corky" Hoda obtained a description of the vehicle and suspects from a neighbor of the residence, then broadcasted the information to other local law enforcement agencies.

Bay St. Louis Police Officer Clifton Malley spotted the vehicle at the Jr. Food Store on Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis and stopped it, Karl said. Malley, Burleson and Hoda then made the arrests, Karl added.

Arrested were George E. Singleton, 25, of Pearl River, La., Richard Mayne, 25, of Bay Side Park and a Pearl River, La., juvenile. Karl said the two adults are incarcerated at the Hancock County jail without bond because both men were on parole at the time of the arrests. He added that the juvenile was turned over to Youth Court authorities.

DRUG ARRESTS

Glenn Strong, director of the Hancock County Narcotics Task Force reported Saturday the arrest of Donald H. Hendrix (alias Donald McIntire), 33, of Perkinston, Miss. and Kathrine Hampton, 33, of Bay St. Louis on charges of sale of a controlled substance.

Strong said the two were arrested Friday, Feb. 8, at approximately 10:57 a.m. in the parking lot of a business in Waveland. He added the arrest took place when a substance was sold to William Pepperman, who is an agent of the Narcotics Task Force representing Waveland.

Three quarters of a pound of marijuana was confiscated. Task Force agent Terry Eley, representing Bay St. Louis, is in charge of the investigation said Strong.

The two people are reported to be presently out of jail on $5,000 bond.

SHOPPING UP A STORM

By Katy
McGuire Caire

With Mardi Gras swiftly followed by Valentine Day, even with the somberness of Ash Wednesday in between, we've cause for double celebration! Whether you're packing parade lunches, or stirring up food for the hungry hordes before and after the festivities, there's ever so much variety from which to choose at our area supermarkets just now. And, however you plan to say "Happy Valentine," with sweets or flowers of a juicy steak or whatever, you've a wide choice, too.

There are Lenten specials as well, for preparing meals all through the week; it's up to you to pick and choose the good buys and the special buys!

Chicken breasts are super bargains in family packs; and leg quarters remain at their usual good prices. Ham shank portions and fresh Boston Butt pork roasts are good buys, as are beef sirloin tip roasts and steaks.

You might even wish to buy boneless top sirloin, or splurge a bit for your Valentine on a beef strip or other steak. That's my way of saving at the market: indulge yourself and family a little on the one hand and make up for it with economies on the other hand, for we can't live happily on ground beef alone, can we?

Not that there's anything wrong with good ground beef; I've had many a super-tasty meal from ground beef to "put it down" in the culinary department. There's so much more to ground beef than hamburgers and meat loaf and such, isn't there? And, at good prices, also!

Yams, other potatoes and cabbage crowd the vegetable bins at good prices with large baking size potatoes a special value. Canned vegetables are also bargains. Florida oranges are down in price a little, as are grapefruit.

As you might expect, a chicken devotee such as I, have picked up a package of chicken breasts, some of which I'll broil and freeze for later use. I also cooked one of my favorite easy-do-meals, aptly named "No Work Marinated Chicken"—well, almost no work! Here's:

NO WORK CHICKEN

4 to 6 chicken breast halves
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup Dijon Mustard
1 Tbsp. curry powder
2 Tbsp. soy sauce
Mix honey, mustard, curry powder and soy sauce in 9x13-inch baking dish. Place chicken in sauce, coat thoroughly and marinate in refrigerator for six hours.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Bake the chicken, uncovered at 350 degrees for an hour, basting often. That's all there is to it; ten minutes to prepare, six hours in the fridge, while you go about your business, and an hour in the oven. Not much real work, is it? (Four servings)—from "Winners" cookbook of winning recipes from the Junior League of Indianapolis, Inc.

If you've set some chicken aside, or if you've some leftover, take a winning tip from the same cookbook and make this elegant party dish:

CHICKEN ARTICHOKE ELEGANTE

1 1/2 cups diced cooked chicken
1 (10 oz.) package frozen chopped spinach, cooked and drained

2 cups cooked, long grain white rice (may substitute brown rice)
1 egg, slightly beaten
4 Tbsp. (1/2 stick) butter or margarine, softened (divided)
1 (14 1/2 oz.) can artichoke hearts
1 1/2 cups grated Monterey Jack cheese

1/2 lb. fresh mushrooms, sliced
1/2 medium onion, chopped
2 Tbsp. all-purpose flour
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 tsp. prepared mustard
Pepper, salt to your taste
1 cup milk
Grease a 9-inch pie plate. Squeeze spinach to remove all excess moisture. Combine spinach, rice and egg in medium-size bowl. Add 2 tablespoons butter or margarine and mix well. Press into prepared pie plate, covering bottom and sides. Cover and chill for 30 to 60 minutes.

Drain artichokes and blot dry. Cut each into 2 or 3 pieces and arrange over rice and spinach crust. Arrange chicken and cheese over artichokes (at this point, preheat the oven to 350 degrees.)

Melt the remaining 2 tablespoons of butter in medium-sized skillet over low heat. Add mushrooms and onions, and saute over medium heat until tender. Stir in the flour, garlic, mustard and salt and pepper, and add the milk gradually, cooking until the mixture thickens. Pour over the pie. (At this point, dish may be refrigerated). Bake, uncovered, at 350 degrees for 45 minutes; or, if you've refrigerated before cooking, bake, uncovered, for an hour.

This recipe may be doubled, and placed in a 9x13-inch casserole. (Six servings)

County school board tackles quality of construction work

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

In an attempt to finish the new school, the Hancock County School Board authorized a meeting of all contractors and sub-contractors within a week to 10 days.

Superintendent Terrell Randolph informed the board Monday it was time to call together the various groups involved in the construction of the high school for a meeting to check work completed and to set time limits on the completion of finishing items.

The board discussed a contract problem concerning roofing work at Gulfview Elementary.

The work, finished within the past year, is presenting problems throughout the school in the form of water leaks in the computer and kindergarden class rooms.

Board attorney Joseph Gex was instructed to notify the contractor, Bob King Construction, that a meeting is requested for discussion of existing problems.

According to Randolph, the work completed was under warranty, and to correct the leaks independently would negate that warranty, leaving the contractor free from any responsibility for work quality.

Bids were opened and the board approved the purchase of five water fountains at $391.96 each from Arender Plumbing and Heating Supply of Jackson. Three of the fountains will be installed at Hancock North Central Elementary and two at Gulfview Elementary.

Bids for the purchase of air and heating unit filters drastically varied in price, causing the board to question the accuracy of the lowest bid. It was decided the bids would be questioned and the findings reported to the board before awarding the contract.

A portable bucket lift was bid on and placed under advisement. The board asked building maintenance investigate the various types submitted for bid and to report back to the board as to the best selection.

The lift is to be used at the high school for access to windows and fixtures in the commons and gymnasium buildings.

Bids for banking services were answered by four local banks with only one, Eastover Bank for Savings, committing to a set interest rate.

The other three institutions paid interest by the varying market rate.

The board asked that the depository bids be given over to the school district bookkeeper and business manager for perusal. They were placed under advisement.

Approval was given to advertise for bids on the following:

—baseball field dugouts for both sides;

—a concession stand with a storage room for the home side;

—solid doors for the hall;

—roof repairs for all schools;

—fall and winter sports equipment and supplies.

The board passed a resolution asking that a policy be submitted for board approval which will allow bids to be opened at a pre-set meeting, prior to a board meeting, to allow the business manager and another persons directly involved in the purchase, verify prices and recommend preference. The policy would be limited to purchases under $25,000 and is meant as a time saving measure.

Presently bids are opened by board members, sent to the business manager and or department head affected by the purchase, and then returned to the board at the next meeting for award.

The board accept a $300 contribution from Helen Mestayer in recognition of the Chapter I program.

The program assists below average and borderline students in improving weak study areas.

The money will be used for the printing of bumper stickers in support of the Chapter I program.

Other business approved included:

—a recommendation to employ Scott Favre, Debra Richardson, Martha B. Amacker, Helen Mestayer, Donald Lathrop, Jerry Kate Bazar, Margaret M. Hjelm and Peggy Ladner Maurigi as substitute teachers at Hancock High School for the remainder of the 1990-91 school year;

—a recommendation to employ Becky Cheffer as a teacher's aid in the JTPA (Job Training Partnership Act) Program at Hancock High School for the remainder of the 1990-91 school year;

—the resignation of Theresa Rosenhauer as special education teacher at Gulfview Elementary effective February 2, 1991;

—a recommendation to adopt and implement (education) guidelines for the Drug Prevention Program for the Hancock County School District;

—a request to release four students from Hancock County District to attend school in another district due to convenience in location;

—the Activity Fund Account

Claim Dockets for all schools in the district for the month of January 1991;

—the district hand checks and docket claim checks for the month of January 1991;

—a request to accept low quote in the amount of $842 for a hood on bus #36. The hood was damaged when the bus had to be pulled out of a ditch;

—the resignation of David Gardache as a contracted driver with Special Education Transportation, effective January 23, 1991;

—to employ Mary Proby as a contracted driver for three days (January 24, 25, and 28, 1991) with Special Education Transportation; —to employ Betty Famularo as a contracted driver with Special Education Transportation for the remainder of the 1990-91 school year, effective January 29, 1991;

—to pay to Magnolia School Products in the amount of $13,500 for teacher cabinets and millwork at Hancock High School;

—to pay to Parker Boys Construction in the amount of $24,220 for completion of site preparation (raking and shearing) on 280 acres of Section 16 land in northeast Hancock County near Highway 53;

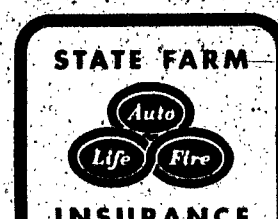

The school board adjourned until Monday, February 11 at 5:30 p.m.

for the plant will remain as wetlands. We will be employing men and women from this area in production and administrative positions initially. In addition, the site is large enough to accommodate growth to meet our future demands which should also provide increased employment.

Mac Holladay, executive director, Mississippi Department of Economic Community Development said, "It was a pleasure to work with the team work which went into the Calgon Project. We also companies like Calgon Carbon, as it is a company that has a record of not standing still."

Gov. Ray Mabus addressed the group of state and local government officials, industrial representatives and the media via a telephone hookup.

The governor said, "I am delighted that Calgon Carbon has selected Mississippi for its latest facility, bringing initially 60 new jobs to Hancock County and potentially more jobs with future expansion. Our meeting with Calgon Carbon officials in Pittsburgh last fall helped to facilitate this project, and reflects benefits of our economic development missions."

"The cooperative effort among state, local, and company officials has resulted in the placement of this $63 million facility here at Port Bienville," Gov. Mabus said, "And I congratulate all those involved in the success we celebrate today."

Harold "Buz" Olsen, executive director, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, introduced several persons on a state and local level who helped with the location of the facility.

A reception at the Diamond-head Country Club was hosted by representatives from Hancock Bank, Mississippi Power Company and Coast Electric Power Association.

Historically, Calgon Carbon's roots date back to 1941 when the firm developed a coal-based granular activated carbon in Pittsburgh, Pa., for use in military gas masks.

Following World War II, the military demand dwindled, and the company found new product applications for industry and municipalities. As the demand for the product grew, Calgon added production capacity, first at Neville Island, Pa., and then at Catlettsburg, Ky., and Felu, Belgium.

In 1988, Calgon Carbon purchased two additional production facilities in Germany from Degussa A.G.

Morning Stiffness: Arthritis Warning Sign #1

If your morning stiffness in the joints that lasts more than 30 minutes, you may have a form of arthritis. And the earlier you seek treatment, the better the chances are that the arthritis can be arrested... before it does permanent damage.

There are literally dozens of different types of arthritis, many of which may start off with morning stiffness. In point of fact however, different kinds of arthritis may lead to different kinds of damage.

The person who has arthritis is often a specialist in the treatment of these disorders. In either internal medicine or rheumatology programs that lead to one of those areas. (One of those areas is Rheumatology.)

Sedrish, is a board certified in Medicine and Pediatrics. Dr. Sedrish is successfully completing an additional fellowship program (called a "fellowship") in rheumatology, concentrating on the diagnosis and treatment of only the conditions known as arthritis and connective tissue diseases.

The end result of all these years of training is the ability to recognize what kind of arthritis you have and the kind of treatment that is most successful.

Once an accurate diagnosis has been made, treatment can be begun and often the patient can return to his or her family doctor. Then, when the Rheumatologist and you are working together, the Rheumatologist can keep you on track.

Godard, Kibler reign at Krewe of Diamondhead

Special to the Echo
By Hilda L. Bourg

In a colorful and majestic setting, the Krewe of Diamondhead staged its 16th annual ball masque Saturday evening, February 2 at the Diamondhead Country Club.

The ballroom was decorated with flags, flowers, streamers and masks in the traditional colors of purple, green and gold. A small replica of the royal float was placed on each table accented by a silver metallic ribbon. The bandstand was draped in gold lame with the royal throne placed in the center.

After a moment of silence in remembrance of our soldiers serving in Desert Storm, the officers of the Krewe of Diamondhead were introduced by Stan Robert, master of ceremonies.

The officers are Robert, president; Jerry Bourg, treasurer; Clarice Gustin, secretary; Chris Arnos, parade lieutenant; Hilda Bourg, publicity lieutenant; Henry Burkhardt, social lieutenant; Ronnie Bankston, ways and means lieutenant; and Laura Almerico, decoration chairman.

A drum roll heralded the entrance of Captain Benny Mistretta. He was attired in a royal purple velvet cape embellished in gold sparkling brilliants which formed the logo of the Krewe of Diamondhead.

The dukes to the king were Norman Schuback, Bob Crim, Paul Snemyr and Bill Eckert.

Maids of honor were Mrs. Jean McWilliams, Mrs. Ethel

Phillip, Mrs. Charlotte Reshaw and Mrs. Ruth Rhodes. They wore different colored sequined ball gowns and were escorted into the ballroom by the royal dukes.

Trumpets announced the arrival of King Ali'i Honua XVI Ted Godard and Queen Evelyn Kibler. They promenaded around the ballroom greeting their subjects to the official song of Mardi Gras, "If ever I Cease to Love."

The queen wore a closely fitted floor-length champagne colored gown which was overlaid with lace and adorned with iced sequins, crystals, pearls and clear stones. The large plume color which framed the queen's face was accented with jewels. From the regal collar fell the royal mantle, emblazoned with the logo of the Krewe of Diamondhead. Gold and rhinestones crown and scepter completed her regal ensemble. A white orchid, a present from her king, was placed on the scepter.

The king wore white tails with a purple, green and gold rhinestone baldric. A crown overlaid in royal purple was encrusted with gold and rhinestones. His royal mantle and scepter matched the queen's.

Mistretta proposed a toast to the royal couple.

Special guest of the king and queen were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Godard Sr. from Enfield, Conn., parents of the king; Mrs. Alice Allen, Enfield, Conn., sister of the king;

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Anderson, Somers, Conn., sister and brother-in-law of the king; Mrs. Corinne Ellery, Lacombe, La., mother-in-law of the king;

Mrs. Bess Schackai, Lacombe, La.; Mrs. Edie Marinello, Lacombe, La.; Mrs. Ella Lashley, Lacombe, La.; Mrs. Lena Compors, Slidell, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCloskey, Venice, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. Dusty Rhodes from Maryland, sister and brother-in-law of the queen. Each received a gift.

Attending the ball as guests of the Krewe of Diamondhead were the 1991 royalty from the Krewe of Kamehameha, King Akua Kai XVII Harvey Comfort and Queen Nell Dennis.

Past Krewe of Diamondhead monarchs attending the ball were 1976 King Joe Salvatore; 1980 Queen Lee Fredian; 1982 Queen Cecile Grice; 1983 King Tommy Heier and his Queen Hilda Bourg;

1984 King Jerry Bourg and his Queen Lorraine Heier; 1985 King Vincent Almerico Sr. and his Queen Ann Neff; 1986 King Tom Satterlee and his Queen Laura Almerico;

1987 King Stan Robert; 1988 King Charles H. Johnson Sr. and his Queen Elizabeth Claggett; 1989 King Herbert A. Larson and his Queen Dot Hoskins; and 1990 King Ronnie Bankston and his Queen Linn Godard.

The former queens received bouquets of flowers with streamers in the carnival colors from the queen, and the former kings received boutonnieres in carnival colors from the king.

Past royalty from the Krewe of Kamehameha present were 1982 Queen Pat Stafford; 1983 King Lou Cotton; 1985 King Bud Freeman and Queen Mary Lou Freeman; 1986 Queen Jean Keen; and 1990 King R. B. Boatright and Queen Nina Cotton.

Music was provided by "Buddy Ohler Band." The first dance of the evening was led by the royal couple joined by the past royalty and the royal court. A festive meal and general dancing followed.

King Ali'i Honua XVI Ted Godard and Queen Evelyn Kibler

Molpus pleased that Mississippians responded to Census challenge

Secretary of State Dick Molpus said, "Mississippi has risen to the occasion" in light of the U.S. Census Bureau's announcement that the state registered a large enough population to keep its five Congressional seats.

Molpus noted, "The news was one we deserved and worked very hard for."

"Our success has come from a monumental effort by county, city and state officials to make sure that every single person and household was counted for Mississippi."

Molpus said his office has learned that detailed population breakdowns by counties and cities will not be available until the end of February when the U.S. Census Bureau will transmit the data to the Governor's Office and to the Mississippi House Committee on Elections and Reapportionment.

"Mississippi is in the first tier to receive this information because of the upcoming reapportionment of the Legislature and the statewide elections this fall," he noted. As Secretary of State, Molpus is the state's chief elections officer.

Earlier, Molpus has described as a "real crisis" preliminary Census totals showing that Mississippi had gained very little population since 1980. "I am still not satisfied that all Mississippians were counted. We will be looking into this to make certain that all challenges were properly handled," he said.

During the 1990 Census process last summer, Molpus and other officials had voiced serious concerns that an undercount could cost Mississippi a Congressional seat and millions of federal dollars.

"We will get a more detailed reflection of our state's population when the city and county totals are available," Molpus said.

The U.S. Census Bureau reported Dec. 26 that Mississippi's 1990 population was 2,586,443 compared with 1980's total of 2,520,638. In August, preliminary Census figures showed Mississippi's population at 2,534,814. The U.S. population in 1990 totaled 249.6 million, or a 10.21 percent increase since the 1980 census totalling 226.5 million.

During the Census process, Molpus' Elections Division provided technical assistance to cities and counties to register Census challenges. Molpus made several media swings throughout the state, and his office distributed public service announcements via radio, television and newspapers encouraging citizens to be counted.

Mississippi held on to its five Congressional seats, against a challenge from more than a dozen other states. In the announcement from the Department of Commerce, states losing one seat each in the U.S. House of Representatives were Kentucky, Louisiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Montana, New Jersey and West Virginia. Eight states gained representation and 13 lost seats.

A news release from the Department of Commerce stated it was considering whether to correct undercounts and overcounts until July 15, 1991.

"We must make certain that Mississippi is not hurt by any recount process," Molpus added.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

S. Mississippi
AIDS
Task Force

The Western Division of the South Mississippi AIDS Task Force sponsors a support group for persons with AIDS and another for their loved ones and caretakers from Hancock County and west Harrison County. For details, call Edith Back at 467-2445 or Betty Brunner at 467-8589.

Adult Literacy
Education

Tutoring sessions for adults who want to learn to read and write are available through the Hancock County Library System. The program is open free of charge to any adult aged 16 and above, who wants to improve reading skills to a grade five level.

Each student meets one-on-one with a certified tutor trained in the use of the Laubach Adult Literacy method. Student/tutor units meet at a time and learning center convenient to both. Learning centers for literacy are currently located in Bay St. Louis, Kiln, Waveland, Diamondhead, and Pearlinton.

Call Ruth Krebs, Hancock County literacy coordinator, at the Bay St. Louis Library, 467-5282, for information. Persons who wish to teach adults to read as volunteer literacy tutors are also encouraged to call.

Blood Pressure

Retired Senior Volunteer Program sponsors free blood pressure testing Tuesdays, 9:30-11:30 a.m., American Legion Post No. 77, Waveland; Wednesdays, 10:30-11:30 a.m., RSVP office, Senior Citizens Center, Old Spanish Trail, Bay St. Louis.

Hancock Medical Center Women's Auxiliary (Pink Ladies) conducts free blood pressure testing at the hospital, 10-11:30 a.m. Tuesdays.

Legal Line

Volunteer attorneys answer legal questions from the general public from 6 to 7 p.m., first Wednesdays at 1-374-4160. The service is sponsored by Harrison County Young Lawyers, South Mississippi Planning and Development District Area Agency on Aging and South Mississippi Legal Services Corporation.

Money
Management

The Consumer Money Management Center serves the public by providing free financial consultations as well as informational literature and seminars for employers, educational institutions and civic and professional groups.

Information and assistance from the center relates to various aspects of personal money management including budgeting, credit repayment, insurance, and investments.

The service is sponsored by Mississippi State University and Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. To set up an appointment call Hancock County Extension Office, 467-5456.

Senior Citizens
Center

Located in the Valena C. Jones Bldg. at 301 Old Spanish Trail in Bay St. Louis, the center serves Hancock County citizens 60 plus years of age.

Under the Hancock County Human Resource Agency, the center provides classes in ceramics, macramé, art, quilting, counted cross stitch, silk flowers, Christmas ornaments, framing, wood working and various other crafts. A morning snack is provided with donations from various clubs and businesses.

The center has a contract to provide 30 home delivered meals a day to those seniors who cannot provide for themselves, and 35 meals for those who have a need for a hot well-balanced meal daily in the cafeteria at the center.

Transportation is provided through a contract with Coast Area Transportation for most seniors in the county to bring them into the center, or to take them to the grocery, doctor, etc.

The contract with Methodist Senior Services provides two homemakers for about two hours a week to homebound, needy seniors to do light housekeeping or errands for them.

For more information, call the center at 467-9292 from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

American Cancer Society

Assistance to victims of cancer is available through local chapters of the American Cancer Society.

Necessary items for patients, such as dressings, ostomy and sickroom supplies are available to those in need. Equipment which may be loaned to patients includes wheelchairs and hospital beds.

Assistance is available for transportation to qualifying hospitals.

Several rehabilitation programs are offered, including "Reach To Recovery," in which volunteers who have had mastectomies visit new breast cancer patients (with approval of physician) to assist in emotional, physical and psychological rehabilitation.

Support programs are also available to ostomy and laryngectomy patients.

American Cancer Society service request forms are available by contacting the Gulfport office at 896-7024.

St. Vincent
Thrift Store

Waveland Conference, St. Vincent de Paul Society operates a thrift store, Waveland Civic Center, Coleman Avenue, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Proceeds benefit needy regardless of race or religion. 467-0703. Interviews for information, referral and assistance services are conducted Wednesdays between 1-3 p.m.

Bay-Waveland
Crisis Pregnancy
Center

The Bay-Waveland Crisis Pregnancy Center offers free counseling, pregnancy tests, maternity and baby clothes.

Located on Highway 90, next to the Unique Shoppe in Waveland, the center offers a 24-hour hotline, 467-3444.

Jobs for Mississippi
Graduates

Seniors at Hancock High School who plan to go directly to work after graduation may enroll in the Jobs for Mississippi Graduates Program (JMG), for assistance in locating quality jobs after graduation.

The program, which is one of six in the state, seeks to enhance employability skills. For additional information, contact Mark France at Hancock High School at 467-2251.

We'll Be There...

In a changing economy, the words strength and stability take on new meaning. Fortunately, these words have played an important part in guiding Hancock Bank through booms, busts, storms, depressions and two world wars. That's why generation after generation of families continue to put their faith and trust in Hancock Bank.

More Strength...

During 1990 when many financial institution's deposits were shrinking and earnings were "flat" or worse, Hancock Holding Company deposits grew by 43%. And, earnings per share increased.

Of equal interest, VERIBANC, Inc., an independent survey and rating firm in Massachusetts, twice listed Hancock Bank among the TOP FIFTY (50) SAFEST LARGE BANKS in the United States.

More Resources...

In terms of growth, the three mergers finalized in 1990 are certainly of major consequence.

The first occurred on June 4th, with the purchase of the $100,000,000 Metropolitan National Bank which greatly improved our ability to serve customers in the Biloxi, D'Iberville and Ocean Springs area.

On June 15th, our position in Pearl River County was further strengthened with the acquisition of the Poplarville Branch of The Unifirst Bank for Savings resulting in an additional $7,500,000 in deposits.

The bank's first out-of-state venture occurred on August 2nd, in a "clean bank" purchase of the $350,000,000 American Bank and Trust Company of Baton Rouge, Louisiana from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The favorable terms of the transaction enabled us to "pick and choose" many of the assets owned by the American Bank. We were able to select acceptable liabilities and adjust rates of interest that were "above the market".

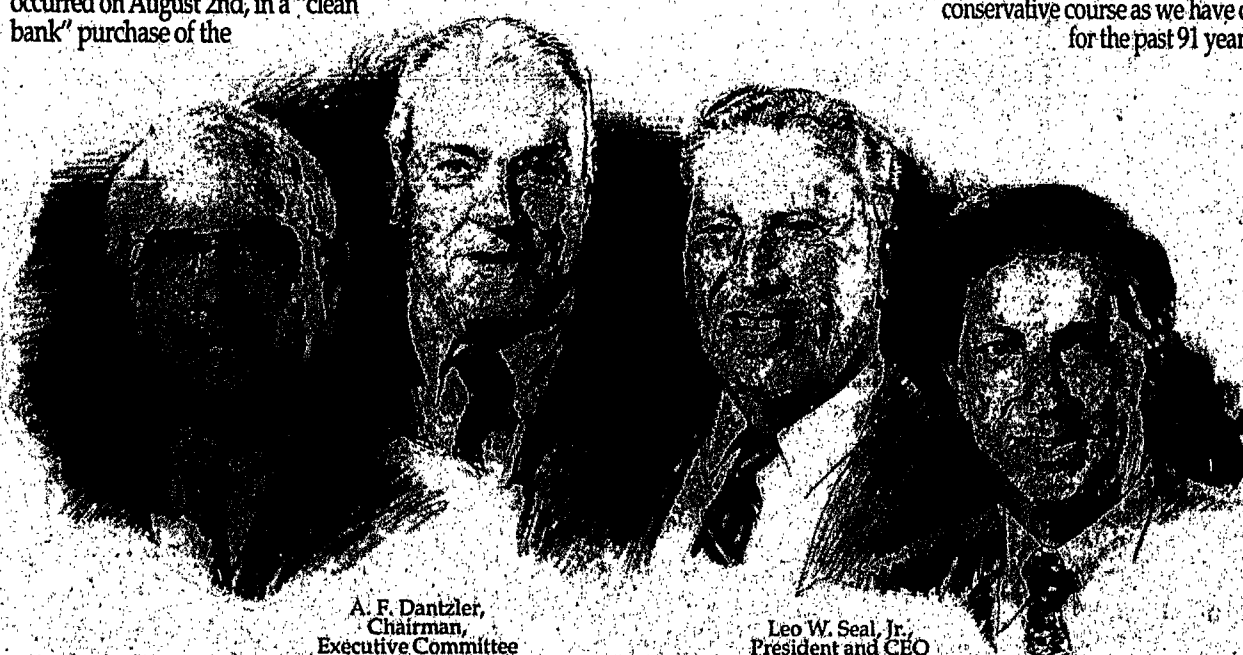

Of all the mergers during the past twenty years, this one by far, has the most favorable opportunities to effect significant "economies of scale", foremost in occupancy expense and data processing. This move also provided us with immediate access to an out-of-state market that is poised for growth.

We were also pleased that we experienced no significant customer loss during any of the mergers.

More Potential...

The fact that we were able to grow and remain strong under the prevailing conditions is due to the support of nearly 150,000 loyal customers and the untiring efforts of our staff and board members. It was your faith and trust that made 1990 a success and we thank you.

Finally, we look forward to 1991 with optimism and enthusiasm remembering that problems are only opportunities in disguise. At the same time, we pledge to you that we will continue to steer a conservative course as we have done for the past 91 years.

Questions answered about Judaism

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a monthly series of articles by Lois Abrams, a retired Hancock County teacher, one of the county's GED teachers and a member of the Jewish community in Diamondhead.

By Lois Abrams

Before I start, I ask you to keep in mind that both the questions and their answers are being provided by lay persons. Scholars may dispute these questions and their answers.

Q: From where did the Jews in Israel today come?

A: Most Jews in Israel today are immigrants. The words, "I am a Jew" unite them. They become citizens of Israel upon their arrival in the country.

Jews from Europe spearheaded the transformation of Arab Palestine into a Westernized Jewish state. Hebrew was revived as a national language although English, Arabic and Yiddish (a German dialect) are widely spoken.

Oriental Jews have made up the bulk of immigrants since the 1948 War of Independence. The most recent wave of newcomers originates in the Soviet Union. Native-born Jews, or Sabras as they are called, will soon form a majority.

Q: Why do Jews divide between Orthodox, Conservative and Reformed?

A: To explain the different styles that Jews choose themselves to worship the One God, please understand that all Jews have more common ground than differences. I am inclined to think that the differences are more what is seen or heard than true inner feelings.

All Jews have a dream: to lead a life that will secure a Jewish future. Jews take different styles to fulfill that dream.

We, as Jews, respect all religions. Yes, we all have different ways to get to heaven. It is said that the righteous gentile (non-Jew) will reach heaven before a sinning Jew.

ORTHODOX JUDAISM

Orthodox Judaism, the most traditional of the three styles, believe that the laws handed down by God were of God's creation. From those laws, rules of life have been derived — both from the written words and the "honorable" law (an explanation of the Bible).

The Orthodox Jew wears a head covering (a yamaka) in respect to his humility before God. The Orthodox Jew also "keeps kosher." These outward manifestations of their beliefs single their identity in our Christian world.

In the synagogue, Orthodox men sit separately from women so they will not be distracted. Prayers are individual, not group-oriented, and all are in Hebrew.

To an Orthodox Jew, what to eat and how to prepare the food are written in Leviticus 11 and Deuteronomy 14, as given by God to his people. An Orthodox Jew joyfully follows these laws. To him it is a pleasure to carry out God's wishes.

An Orthodox Jew does not follow these laws concerning food preparation and consumption for health reasons as that would be self-centered, not God-centered.

To obey these laws, the Orthodox Jew eats only animals that chew the cud and have a split hoof. He eats birds, but never birds of prey. Seafood eaten by an Orthodox Jew must have fins and scales. These foods must always be from healthy animals and animals killed under supervision so the animal does not suffer or feel pain.

CONSERVATIVE JUDAISM

Conservative Judaism interprets Jewish law differently. It recognizes diversions of Jewish law by other cultures during their 5,000 years. Judaism, from the Conservatives' view, has taken many ideas of others and given many to others.

In the synagogue men and women sit together, as it gives comfort to have the family mixed. The service is about 25 percent in the vernacular — in our country, English — and the rest Hebrew. Conservative Jews do keep the kosher laws.

REFORMED JUDAISM

The Reformed, or more Westernized style, of Judaism was begun in Germany 200 years ago. However, North America has truly been the center of this movement.

During the history of the Jews, there have been many reformations, so this is not a unique change. Jews have always been able to change to meet threats of annihilation.

There are about one million Reformed Jews in the United States that belong to about 750 to 800 Reformed temples or synagogues.

Reformed Jews believe that the laws were written by humans inspired by God. Thus, if humans wrote the divinely-inspired literature of the Torah, humans can make changes.

In the Reformed temples the language of the country is spoken, but the Torah (the first five books of the Old Testament) and many prayers are kept in Hebrew. Music is a vital part of the service.

Women can be rabbis in Conservative and Reformed Judaism, but not in Orthodox. Reformed Jews may keep kosher but are not obligated to do so.

To Reformed Jew, the word "reform" is a verb — constantly moving. It is not a noun!

Regardless of the style of Judaism that a Jewish person chooses, "Shalom" means "hello", "goodbye" and "peace."

Q: Why are Jewish religious leaders called rabbis?

A: The word "rabbi" in Hebrew means "teacher." The leader of any Jewish congregation is usually the most knowledgeable.

To Jewish people education is paramount. I have always heard it said that a Jewish mother will part the Red Sea to educate her children.

A life of study is inborn in most Jewish people. Debates, writings, discussions are always part of a Jewish education.

Grief therapy for teens, children seminar slated Feb. 25

Monday, Feb. 25 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., a special program entitled "Helping Children and Adolescents Cope With Grief" will be offered at the Royal d'Iberville Hotel, 1980 Beach Boulevard, Biloxi. Riemann Funeral Homes will sponsor the seminar.

Dr. Alan Wolfelt, clinical thanatologist of national reputation, will be the presenter. Dr. Wolfelt is director of the Center of Loss and Life Transition in Colorado and is the author of a number of publications, including the books Helping Children Cope With Grief and Death and Grief: A Guide for Clergy.

A major focus of the program will be to help participants better understand the experience of grief and how to be of help to themselves and others.

The program is open to the public, and pre-registration is encouraged. For information and to obtain pre-registration materials, call Pat Harvill at 467-4242.

A special breakfast program for clergy will be sponsored at the Royal d'Iberville from 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 26.

For reservations or information, call 467-4242.

Lions Club show set for March 9

The Hancock County Lions Club's Talents in Comedy, which was postponed due to the start of Operation Desert Storm, will be rescheduled for March 9, 7 p.m., at the Valena C. Jones gym on Old Spanish Trail.

The Lions Club asks for public support of the event. Donations are $3 per person. Tickets will be sold at the door, or may be purchased from any Lions Club member or by calling 467-4974 or 467-7934. Refreshments also will be sold.

Lucille Boudreaux is chairman of the show.

Blacksmithing conference slated in April

The Mississippi Forge Council announces a conference of blacksmithing near Meridian April 27-28.

The council is a club of local blacksmiths who meet once a month at various locations in the state.

The April conference will be led by master blacksmith Bob Patrick from Arkansas who will demonstrate forge welding techniques used in forging gun barrels.

There will be numbers of other demonstrations and learning sessions.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

By H.
Randall Smith

All women enjoy getting roses. Yes, it is true that roses not only have graced our landscape with brilliant colors and sensational fragrances for centuries (six centuries before Christ), but have become a symbol of love and affection.

From my childhood, I can remember the pleasant aromas emanating from the beautiful and prolific flowering roses grown by my Grandfather Smith. Since that time, I have been captivated by the sheer elegance of roses.

Roses are classified into several categories such as bush roses (hybrid teas, floribundas, grandifloras, polyanthas, hybrid perpetuals, shrub roses), tree roses, miniature roses and climbing roses (ramblers, large-flowered climbers, everblooming climbers, climbing hybrid teas, climbing polyanthas, trailing roses).

An array of varieties and colors exist within each of these groups and they can provide you with an enormous bloom season and an excellent source of cut flowers.

Not all rose plantings are successful, because there is more to growing roses than just digging a hole. To have success with roses, you must follow proper soil preparation, site election, planting, fertilization and disease and insect control techniques.

The first step in growing roses is to pick the correct location. Quality roses require plenty of sun, (minimum of six hours of direct sun per day), but light shade during early afternoon is often beneficial.

Remember, roses cannot tolerate heavy shade, should not be planted under trees and should be sheltered from cold wind (a hedge or fence will suffice if heavy shade from these structures can be prevented).

Roses should not be planted in poorly drained soils, frost pockets or in areas of poor air circulation. Bush and standard roses do not like being enclosed by walls or overhanging plants.

Proper soil preparation is crucial to develop a successful rose garden. The soil should be a medium loam that is well-drained, (roses cannot stand wet feet) slightly acid and rich in organic matter and nutrients. Remember a heavy-clay soil that is poorly drained can be detrimental to roses.

Most rose gardens would benefit from being planted in raised beds. The soil within the rose planter should consist of one cubic yard topsoil, one cubic yard clean, sharp sand (not river sand), one cubic yard organic matter (composted sawdust, peat moss or pine bark fines), five pounds dolomitic lime and five pounds superphosphate. The soil should then be tested after it has settled. Rose beds should be prepared in the fall for a spring planting.

Once the site has been selected and the soil prepared, you are ready to pay a visit to your local nursery and purchase your plants. Proper plant selection is crucial if you wish to have healthy and long-lived plants.

It is important that you purchase vigorous and healthy roses from a reputable garden center. Be sure that the plants have a well developed root system, but that are not root bound or crossing over each other. Also make certain that no dead or diseased top growth is present and that the top growth appears green and succulent.

The time of year that roses are planted may also be important. Container-grown roses can essentially be planted at any time of the year if the bed can be adequately prepared. However, much discussion has occurred among rose growers whether the fall or spring is the best time to plant bare-root roses in Mississippi.

Good results have occurred by planting in both seasons, but early spring planting is generally preferred. The ideal time to plant dormant roses (bare-root and container-grown) is between February 1 and March 30 since the soils in Mississippi are generally not cold enough to retard new growth. This succulent new growth is very sensitive to cold snaps.

Now that the roses have been purchased it is time to plant them. Spacing can also be critical and will depend upon the rose types.

Hybrid teas, grandifloras and polyanthas should be planted in a 3' x 3' arrangement in the bed, floribundas should be spaced on a 4' x 4' arrangement and miniatures planted one foot apart, whereas, climbers should be planted at least ten feet apart.

Careful rose planting is also required to obtain a healthy plant. If only a few roses are being planted, individual holes should be dug at least twice the size of the root mass and a minimum of 12 inches deep (or six inches deeper than the container).

For planting a large number of roses, a continuous bed should be prepared by tilling or spading the soil deeply (Know where underground structures are) and then follow by digging the planting holes.

Once the hole has been dug, a small mound of soil should be prepared inside the hole and the roots draped over this mound if they are bare-root plants.

The roses should be set so that the soil line is even with the crown of the plant. Prepared soil should be backfilled into the hole, firmed and watered.

If the roses are container grown, as a general rule, plant them at the same depth as they were grown in the container. Whatever is done, be sure to avoid planting too high or too deep.

Generally nurseries cut the tops back to about 12 inches. If this is the case, the tops should generally not be pruned anymore following planting since flowering is delayed when the canes are cut back to ten inches or less.

Roses are plagued by many diseases and insect pests which can generally be successfully controlled or prevented by following certain control programs depending upon the specific pest problems. It is important to note that with most pathogens, prevention is the best way to gain successful control.

To help conserve moisture, reduce weed problems, and regulate soil temperatures, add a 4 to 6 inch layer of pine straw or pine bark. However, during dry periods, roses should be watered deeply every 8 to 12 days.

Rose fertilization is another aspect that is critical for proper development. A complete fertilizer with the analysis of 6-8-8 or 8-8-8 should be used but do not use fertilizers that are stronger. Many brands of rose foods exist, so allow your local nursery personnel to assist with your selection.

Planting, caring for roses results in beauty for years

Specific fertilizer dosages should be based upon a soil test but most Mississippi soils will benefit from three applications of 2 pounds/100 square feet of bed.

The first application should be made in mid-March, the second in mid-May and the third in August. The fertilizer should be thoroughly watered into the soil immediately after applying. It is always better to base fertilizer and lime applications upon a soil test.

Most roses require pruning each year between February 20 and March 15. Using sterile, sharp tools, hybrid teas, grandifloras and floribundas are pruned in a similar manner.

First, remove all dead and diseased looking wood and then thin all weak canes or those growing inward toward the bush's center.

For hybrid teas and grandifloras, select three to six strong canes and cut them back to 12 to 18 inches high.

With floribundas, leave more canes at a height of 24 to 30 inches (Depends on location in the landscape).

Climbing roses, on the other hand, should be pruned shortly following the bloom period. Climbing roses should be pruned to shape the plants to a desired growth pattern or to completely remove one or two of the oldest canes.

It is true that roses require some attention, but they are well worth it and rose gardens can provide us men with a readily available and inexpensive arsenal to appease those beautiful but finicky women folk.

So go ahead and allow the trained nursery personnel or me to help plan your rose garden or improve your established rose garden.

Be sure to call the Hancock County Agent's office (467-5456) for a copy of the publication entitled "Roses in Mississippi."

Krewe of Real People "let the good times roll"

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Pedro and Queen Williams of Bay St. Louis reigned as the 1991 King and Queen for the Krewe of Real People at the 10th annual ball January 26 at the Hancock County Civic Center.

The ball honored the late Mississippi State Representative Isiah Fredericks, and named his widow, Frances Fredericks, at this year's Grand Marshal.

The Krewe of Real People will be marching on Mardi Gras Day with one change to their traditional route.

On Blaize (Third) Street, the Krewe will turn right onto Washington Street and march towards Old Spanish Trail.

Previously, the Krewe turned at Bookter Street, but because of sewage repairs, the alternate route will be used Fat Tuesday.

The parade of 12 floats will line up 11 a.m. at Commagere Park and at 1 p.m. will roll onto Necaise Street.

At Necaise and Main Streets, it will turn toward the Beach Boulevard.

On Main and Beach Boulevard, the Krewe will turn right, and right again on Court Street.

At Second Street, they will pass in front of Bay St. Louis City Hall and exchange toasts with Mayor Eddie Favre.

The parade will proceed to Union Street, where it will march toward the railroad tracks, turning left at Blaize Avenue, formerly Third Street.

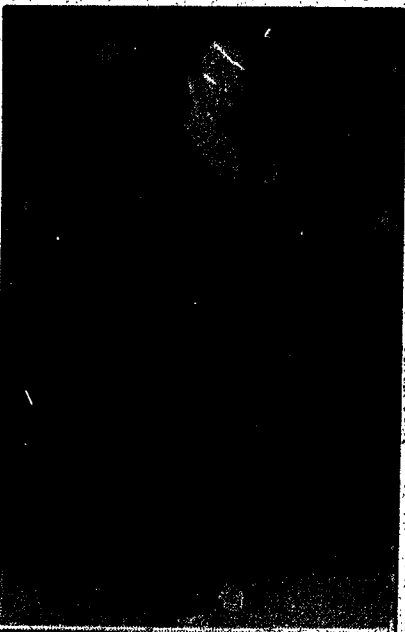

The parade will continue to Washington Street, turning toward Old Spanish Trail where it will take a right and head back to Commagere Park.

The Krewe of Real People will parade the streets of Bay St. Louis in the true spirit of Mardi Gras, "half-fast".

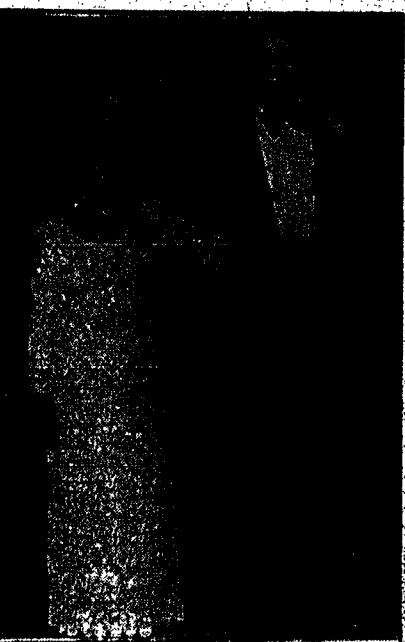

The revelers have much toasting to complete along the route, and the whole day to let the good times roll.

Valentine Silver Tea benefits Trinity Church

The traditional benefit Valentine Silver Tea given each year by St. Monica's Guild of Trinity Church in Pass Christian is a charitable and social event looked forward to by many Gulf Coast residents.

This year the tea will be held Friday, Feb. 15, 3 to 5 p.m., at the new home of A.J. and Pat Lee, 1101 East Beach Blvd., Pass Christian.

Invitations are being mailed to a limited list of people. However, the public is cordially invited. Especially urged to attend are members from churches of neighboring communities and their friends.

Proceeds from the affair go into donations of money and/or various equipment to many charities, including the Honduras Medical Mission, Dixie White House, Miramar Lodge, the Long Beach Food Pantry, Coast Episcopal High School, St. Michael's Boys Farm in Picayune, and the Trinity Church Library.

The tea originated in 1930 when the late Mrs. H.R. Kilpatrick of the Pink Cottage gave a tea honoring the memory of her mother, Mrs. Lelia Abby French of Natchez and Pass Christian. Proceeds from the tea were channeled through St. Monica's Guild for church and community-related projects. Each succeeding year the tea has been given in February and frequently on or near Valentine's Day.

The tea increased in popularity and attendance, and when the Pink Cottage could no longer accommodate the growing number of guests, several old Southern mansions were opened for the affair.

St. Monica's Guild has its beginnings in the early 1950's, when members of the Ladies Aid and Sewing Circle formed the guild. Largely through the efforts of these ladies, Trinity Church was built in 1848-1849. By the turn of the century, a rec-

Slidell Theatre slates fundraiser production

The hilarious adult musical revue, A... My Name is Alice, by Joan Micklin Silver and Julianne Boyd—from a recent successful run at the Mandeville Playhouse—is being brought to the Slidell Little Theatre stage by Judy and Rus Krogsgard of the Mandeville Playhouse as a special benefit. Proceeds will go to SLT's new building fund.

Although this musical revue, made of 21 vignettes, is mostly very funny, there are some poignant situations portrayed.

A... My Name is Alice is brought to life by a group of five very talented ladies who take on a series of characters in the various scenes and present them very skillfully and humorously to the audience through feminine eyes.

Alice will be presented for one weekend only, Friday, Feb. 22 and Saturday, Feb. 23 at 8 p.m. All tickets will be $10, and seating will be open. For more information call 641-0324.

We've Had The Foresight To Ensure Your Newborn's Eyesight.

Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist

Look who we've added to our Neonatal staff: Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist. She's here to check the eyes of your newborn. Because a lifetime of good sight begins with life at first sight.

Dr. Collins is the only Ophthalmologist in Slidell who specializes in the examination and treatment of children's eyes. And this expertise is vital, especially for premature babies, whose eyes are not fully-developed at birth. Because undetected problems could eventually lead to blindness.

As a member of NorthShore's Neonatal staff, Dr. Collins will thoroughly examine and treat your baby's eyes as needed. She joins our staff Neonatologist, Dr. Marlene Buis, and a complete staff of pediatric nurses in our specially-equipped nursery. For the most complete newborn care on the north shore.

So if you're expecting a baby, come see all that NorthShore Regional Medical Center has to offer. You'll appreciate our foresight. And Dr. Collins will ensure your newborn's eyesight.

Bay Little Theater to present musical 'La Cage Aux Folles'

Bay St. Louis Little Theater, the first community theater on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, has scored another first as it prepares to celebrate its 45th birthday.

La Cage Aux Folles, the 1983 hit Broadway musical, recently released for amateur production, opens at the BSLLT playhouse on Boardman Avenue on Feb. 21. The presentation will mark the first community theater production of the musical in the country.

Opening night, to include a champagne-hors d'oeuvres reception, will be a benefit for the South Mississippi AIDS Task Force and the statewide 'Persons With AIDS' project. Tickets, at $15, are available from Serenity Bookstore, 128 1/2 Main Street, Bay St. Louis, 467-3061, or the Task Force 435-1234 and PWA Project 1-800-537-0851.

The show continues Feb. 22, 23 and Mar. 1, 2 with tickets at $5 at the door. Curtain time for all performances is 8 p.m.

The musical, a love story set in the fantasy world of St. Tropez on the Mediterranean, written by Harry Fierstein with music by Jerry Herman, is based on a play by Jean Poiret.

Production staff includes director Dr. Larry Heller, music director Kathleen Doge and choreographer Pat Glenendin.

Starring roles among the cast of 24 (including an eight-member chorus) will be played by Roy Aultman as Albin, Ed Scanlan as Georges, Josef Overal as the butler/main and Dottie Overal as Jacqueline.

Rounding out the cast are Sandy Higdon, Noel Gillin, Carol Young, Maliaca Strom, Mike Ruf, Martin Booda and Mike Wesley.

Members of the chorus are Larry Timmerman, Dave Reynolds, Bruce Pickett, Don George, Glenda Cass, Andora MacNair and Sally Rodrigue and Katie Reynolds.

Also appearing are Norma Morris, Janet Pickett, Ron Brown, Edith Back and Ton Isler.

Set design and construction are by Pat George, Mike Wesley, Noel Gillin and Larry Timmerman.

Stage managers are Noel Gillin and Valerie Fisher. Mike Wesley has designed the lighting; Judy DeGerolamo is hair-stylist; and Don George is in charge of makeup. Edith Back is publicity chairman.

HENRY (BUBBA) LEE BONNEY JR. AND BIANCA L. GUICE

Guice-Bonney

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Guice Sr. of Pass Christian announce the engagement of their daughter, Bianca L. Guice, to Henry (Bubba) Lee Bonney Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Bonney Sr. of Pass Christian.

The bride-elect is a graduate of St. Martin High School and attended Jefferson Davis Community College.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Pass Christian High School. He is currently employed with Haynes Electric.

St. Paul's Catholic Church in Pass Christian is the setting for the March 2 wedding. A reception will follow the afternoon ceremony.

BRANDI BROWN AND KENT DEAVER

Deaver-Brown

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Chicago, Illinois announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Brandi Brown, to Kent Deaver of Dallas, Texas.

The bride is the granddaughter of Billie Vetter of Bay St. Louis and the late Al Vetter and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown of New Orleans. Her mother is the former Cora Mae Vetter.

Miss Brown is a legal assistant, employed with Diane Snyder, Attorney-at-Law. Mr. Deaver is associated with Cowles and Thompson law firm.

The couple will exchange wedding vows February 16 and will reside in Dallas.

Langes celebrate golden anniversary

Marjorie and John Lange of Waveland celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary January 18 with a renewal of their wedding vows at Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at Diamondhead Community Center, hosted by their children and grandchildren.

Out-of-town attendees included son George Lange and his wife Mary Alice and their children Angela and Steven of Washington D.C.; daughter Barbara and husband Bill Giannini and their children Amy and Jill of Princeton, Ky.; and son John R. Lange and his wife Theresa of New Orleans.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rogers of Sun City, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brusk and their children Adam, Jessica and David of Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Determann of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Catherine Marden of Lakewood, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lane of Beaumont, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. James Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Brian Breaux and their children Melanie and Rachel of Lafayette, La.;

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones of Columbus, Ohio; Betty Boothe of Fort Worth, Texas; Lorraine Lange, her sister Gloria Maher, William Maher, Mrs. Roberta Galliker, Ann Braun, Mrs. Paul Ziblich, Carole Ziblich, Jack Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maher, all of New Orleans.

The Langes further celebrated their golden anniversary by going on a Caribbean cruise.

CLUBS, AUXILIARIES

Hancock County Foster Care Association

The Foster Care Association of Hancock County is currently conducting a membership drive to encourage interested persons in the community to join the non-profit group.

The goal of the association is to help the foster children in our county. The first project is to furnish a children's playroom with toys and furniture in the Department of Human Services building which is under construction on Longfellow Drive.

A bake sale will be in front of Kmart on Saturday, Feb. 23. The group is also conducting a raffle for a first prize of $250 or a watch for second prize. The drawing will be March 2. Donations are $1. A concession stand during the Nereids Mardi Gras parade was located in the Monti Electric parking lot. The fundraising activity was fun and profitable.

A Valentine's picnic will be Saturday, Feb. 16 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Waveland Park on the corner of Waveland Avenue and Central Avenue.

Interested persons are welcome to attend the picnic or come by the bake sale. Membership dues are $12 per year per person. Raffle tickets will be available at both locations. For more information, call 467-4100 or 467-4565.

Hancock County Lions Club

The Hancock County Lions Club recently held an induction service of new members at the Bayou Phillips Community Center on Hwy. 90.

New members inducted were Cynthia Adams, sponsored by Lion President Eula Rome; Michael Adams, sponsored by Raymond Rome; Judith Poolson, sponsored by Wanda Berthelot; John Poolson, sponsored by Charles Berthelot; and Valerie Sutton, sponsored by Russell Sutton, who was represented by Jerry Felder, 30N membership chairman, from Mississippi City Lions Club since Sutton was unable to attend because of a business engagement. James Loiacano, sponsored by Lucille Boudreaux, will be inducted at a later date.

Eula Rome was mistress of ceremonies and District 30N Governor Bob Talley was in charge of the induction ceremony. He was accompanied by his wife Kathleen.

Reverend Van Carpenter, pastor of the Main Street United Methodist Church, gave the invocation. Other special guests were Lions Rodney Forbis and Terry Forbis, members of the Meridian Medical Club; Felder and his wife Barbara; International Understanding and Cooperation Director and Past International Director B.M. Stowe and his wife Ruth from the Picayune Evening Club; Lion John Palmer, Zone I chairman Region IV, and his wife Marzelle of Mississippi City Lions Club; Lion Jim Schrock, newly elected Lt. governor of District 30N and his wife Charlene from the Picayune Evening Club; Lioness President of the Southeastern Lioness Club Barbara Kingston; Lionesses Jerry Herbert and U. Katie.

A buffet dinner was donated by the Hancock County Lions Club.

Rodney Forbis, District 30N diabetes awareness chairman, gave a program on diabetes.

In January, the Hancock County Lions Club sponsored the Sight Van, which screened students' vision at St. Clare, Bay High and Coast Episcopal schools under the direction of Past District Governor Marion Erwin of Pontotoc. Hancock County Lions who conducted the screenings were Raymond and Eula Rome, Wanda Berthelot, Lucille Boudreaux and Samuel Blanchard.

Of 731 students screened, 71 referrals were made.

On March 4-6 the Sight Van will again screen local students' vision. The van will offer screenings, along with diabetes, blood pressure and glaucoma checks, to the public in November. The time and place will be announced at a later date.

Eula and Raymond Rome, Charles and Wanda Berthelot, Lucille Boudreaux and Russell Sutton attended a cabinet meeting in Forest on January 6. District 30N Governor Bob Talley presided over the meeting at Penn Restaurant.

Raymond Rome is District 30N secretary; Charles Berthelot is District 30N tail twister; Lucille Boudreaux is District 30N environmental; and Eula Rome is District 30N youth exchange chairman.

On January 23, at Barnsby Restaurant in Long Beach, Eula and Raymond Rome, Mark Moore and Lucille Boudreaux attended a Zone I meeting, presided over by John Palmer. Lucille Boudreaux acted as secretary of the meeting.

Sierra Club

John Wynn of Mobile, Ala., will present an extensive array of slides taken in the Central American rainforests of Belize and Honduras at the Feb. 28 meeting of Sierra Club.

Wynn has captured on film the exotic bird and wildlife thriving in now endangered forests. The beauty and grandeur of forests and jungle are breathtaking and demonstrate the folly of unchecked deforestation.

The slide show will be accompanied by an informative narration of his photographic expedition to Central America.

The public is invited to the free presentation held at the Marine Education Center in Biloxi (located south of Hwy. 90 just before crossing the Ocean Springs bridge) at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 28. For more information, call 435-2623, or 864-2200.

Sometimes, It's Important To See The World Through A Child's Eyes.

No one knows that better than Dr. Candace Collins. She's a Pediatric Ophthalmologist. So she specializes in the testing and treatment of children's eyes. And she does this from a child's point of view.

Dr. Collins knows that, to a child, a visit to the eye doctor can be a frightening experience. So she's done everything possible to change that.

Dr. Collins' waiting room is a playroom. And her eye exams are child's play. Because instead of looking at eye charts, your infant or toddler will watch a special puppet show. It's a process called Preferential Looking, developed specifically for pre-verbal children. To your older child, Dr. Collins' pediatric testing equipment resembles the sci-fi technology they've seen in movies. So eye exams are fun.

Your child's eyesight is a precious gift. Ensure it. With regular eye exams by Slidell's only Pediatric Ophthalmologist, Dr. Candace Collins. She could help your child see a world of difference.

Pass school buses forced to re-route

Since Feb. 7, all Pass Christian Public School buses which run from DeLisle to the three schools in the city of Pass Christian are re-routed.

Instead of using Menge Avenue, the buses use Bells Ferry Road and Red Creek Road, back to Arcadia Road.

According to Robert White, transportation supervisor, the Pass Christian Board of Trustees approved this change.

The change had to be made due to a weight restriction of five tons placed on the Menge Avenue bridge, located near the east end of Cuevas-DeLisle Road, by the Harrison County Board of Supervisors.

According to White, this is the second route change he has had to make. The buses were re-routed last year from Wittmann/Henderson Road to Menge Avenue due to a weight restriction on the Fishing Camp bridge at the DeLisle Bayou.

White stated that several options were looked at to avoid having to increase the starting time of bus routes.

Parents are urged to have their children ready and at the bus stop in order to not delay the bus schedule. With the exception of buses 11, 17 and 18, all bus starting times will remain the same.

Bus 11, 17 and 18 begin five minutes earlier since Thursday morning.

White stated he is asking parents to contact the Board of Supervisors urging them to expedite the repair of the bridges. These weight restrictions are causing a real inconvenience, adding transportation cost and concern for safety. White also added, when Bells Ferry Road is closed due to flooding, buses will be forced to use Interstate 10 to the Long Beach exit and back down Red Creek Road.

FLYING DINOSAUR

Are those creatures pecking at the garden, perching on the wires and cavorting in the pond really dinosaurs? Some scientists think so.

"NOVA" looks at the surprisingly heated scientific squabble about where birds came from on "The Case of the Flying Dinosaur," airing at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 12 on Mississippi ETV.

"The Case of the Flying Dinosaur" is the second of three dinosaur documentaries being broadcast in February on "NOVA." "T. rex. Exposed," about a recent excavation of the king of the dinosaurs, follows Feb. 19 at 8 p.m.

Here's A Special Security Blanket For Your Baby.

Dr. Marlene Buis, Neonatologist.

She's a special part of the nursery at NorthShore Regional Medical Center. And she's here to insure your peace of mind. With expert care. And extra attention. To make your baby's arrival safe and secure.

About six percent of all newborns need neonatal care. So chances are, your baby probably won't need to see Dr. Buis. But we're sure that's a chance you won't want to take.

As a Neonatologist, Dr. Buis has extensive training and experience in intensive care for newborns. As a member of our staff, she offers that care right here in our specially-equipped nursery. And our nurses provide careful, continuous monitoring, to make you feel even more secure. In fact, no other hospital on the north shore can offer your baby better care.

So when you're preparing for your baby's arrival, don't forget your security blanket. Dr. Marlene Buis. You may not need her. But isn't it nice to know she's here?

The Garfield Reading Club 1991 Spring Reading Program Schedule of Activities

- |                |  |
|----------------|--|
| Feb. 4-9       | Registration for Reading Club is open. Pick up a reading record, a membership card, a schedule of activities and check out some books. |
| Feb. 11-16     | Visit your library, check out books and pick up a coloring or activity sheet. Libraries closed Tuesday, Feb. 12 for Mardi Gras Day.    |
| Feb. 18-23     | Bring your finished coloring or activity sheet to the library. Pick up a Garfield crossword sheet.                                     |
| Feb. 25-Mar. 2 | Visit your library, check out a few books and pick up an activity sheet. Have your visitor's log stamped with a Garfield paw print.    |
| Mar. 4-9       | Come in and get Garfield's Jumbo puzzle sheet. How many paw prints do you have?  |
| Mar. 11-16     | Visit your library for a few good books and a Garfield sticker.  |
| Mar. 18-23     | Garfield has a Seek and Find puzzle for you.   |
| Mar. 25-30     | This is it! Come and get your certificate if you have enough paw prints on your visitor's log.   |

Members of the Garfield Reading Club, sponsored by the Hancock County Library System, should visit the library nearest them this week, check out books on their reading level, and pick up a Garfield coloring sheet.

The program is open to all children pre-school and school age. Children who have not yet learned to read may participate by having a parent read to them.

In order to register, a child should sign up at the library branch nearest them, and then visit the library at least five times before March 30. Library staff members will be happy to assist children and parents in selecting books on the child's reading level.

Every time the child checks out books, he should have his visitor's log stamped with a Garfield paw print, and the week of March 30 certificates will be presented to those who have five paw prints on their log.

The libraries will be closed Tuesday, Feb. 12 in observance of Mardi Gras.

Further information is available by calling the main library at 467-5282, the Kiln Library at 255-1724, or the Waveland Library at 467-9240.

Valentine's Day the theme of Story Hour

"Valentine's Day" and "Valentine's Day Late" are the themes for this week's children's story hours at the City-County Public Library, Hwy. 90, Bay St. Louis, and the Waveland Library on Coleman Avenue, respectively.

Bee My Valentine and Best Valentine Book are the books to be featured on Wednesday, Feb. 13 at 10:30 a.m. at the City-County Public Library.

Children will see a cut and tell story, "The Queen of Hearts," and will see the film, "Care Bears Valentine." Children may bring their own Valentine cards to exchange at the story hour.

At the Waveland Library, Friday, Feb. 15, 10:30 a.m., children will be hearing One Zillion Valentines, Bee My Valentine and The Great Valentine's Day Balloon Race.

There will be two finger plays, "Valentine Surprise" and "Valentine Gift."

Children will also be playing a game called "Musical Hearts" and will receive a coloring sheet. They are welcome to bring Valentines to exchange.

Weekly story hours will be conducted at the City-County Public Library and the Waveland Library from September through May. Programs last approximately one hour.

Programs and activities are designed for pre-school-age children three to five years of age who are not part of a nursery or pre-school group. For further information, call Sandra Ladner at the City-County Library at 467-5282, or Karen Peoples at the Waveland Library at 467-9240.

Our "Special Addition" Is Great News For Your Special Addition.

It's A Bundle Of Extras For Every Baby.

At NorthShore Regional Medical Center, we know that the birth of every baby is a special occasion. And whether it's your first baby, or your fourth, or any baby in between, every baby deserves special treatment. That's why our Center for Obstetrics & Gynecology offers Special Delivery, our "Special Addition" program providing extra-special treatment and a bunch of extra gifts for every newborn. And their families, too.

Maternity Fashion Show Luncheon.

Your Special Addition special treatment begins long before your newborn arrives. Because we pamper expectant parents first. We start with a Maternity Fashion Show and Luncheon for you, the mother-to-be. You'll enjoy lunch at one of Slidell's better restaurants, compliments of NorthShore. And fashions presented by a popular maternity shop.

Educational Programs.

Your entire family will benefit from our educational programs. Like Pre-Natal Education and Lamaze classes, designed to prepare you for childbirth. Sibling classes, which help big brothers and sisters adjust to the changes the new baby will bring. Pregnagym™, a medically-supervised pre- and post-natal exercise program conducted at NorthShore Health Center and offered free to those who deliver at NorthShore Regional Medical Center.

Peace of Mind.

About a month before your baby arrives, we'll provide you with a beeper, so you can alert your loved ones when you go into labor. It's part of our Peace of Mind Program™, designed to ease your worrying as the big day draws near. If it's after office hours, and you're not feeling quite right, you'll find peace of mind in our emergency room, where you can be examined by an emergency physician at no charge.

A Bundle of Gifts.

It's a special baby shower, and NorthShore is bringing all the gifts. We'll present your newborn with a portable crib. Stroller. Nursery monitor. And an infant safety seat. Of course, we don't want to forget you, the new mother. So we'll brighten your room with a bouquet of fresh flowers.

Mother's Helper.

This is one of our most popular extras. And one you're sure to love. It's the Mother's Helper Program™, giving you the extra help you need the week your baby arrives. A qualified Home Maker will come to your home to assist you with cooking, cleaning, and household chores, compliments of NorthShore. The Home Maker will be available five days, four hours per day. So you can relax a little bit.

Parents' Night Out.

As proud new parents, you deserve a night on the town. Celebrate in style with dinner at one of Slidell's better restaurants. NorthShore will make all the arrangements. And we'll pick up the tab. It's our Parents' Night Out Program™. Enjoy!

First In Healthcare.

At NorthShore Regional Medical Center, our top priority is to provide you everything you need in healthcare. That's why we were the first hospital in the area to offer low-cost package pricing for patients without maternity insurance. And no out-of-pocket expenses for maternity patients with insurance. We were also the first to offer the amenities that have made our maternity program so popular, like maternity beepers and homemaker assistance.

We also know that all the extras in the world don't mean anything unless the care you and your newborn receive is first rate. So we're staffed with the best healthcare professionals available. And equipped with the finest technology.

Neonatal Intensive Care.

Our Neonatal Intensive Care Unit is state-of-the-art, and staffed with a neonatologist and neonatal subspecialists. To ensure that your newborn receives the finest care available, should complications arise. Additionally, both of our well baby nurseries offer your newborn the gentle, expert care of our neonatal nurses.

Your choice for childbirth.

All this, and we still offer the lowest maternity package prices around. And the most extras.

When you add it all up, your choice for childbirth is easy. NorthShore Regional Medical Center. It's a special way to welcome your Special Addition into the world.

School district seeks handicapped children

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland and Hancock County School Districts are participating in an ongoing state effort to locate and evaluate children from birth through age 21 who have handicaps and who are not enrolled in school.

The school district provides services for the following handicaps: speech-language, specific learning disabilities, educationally handicapped, visually impaired, hearing impaired, physically handicapped and emotionally handicapped.

Early identification of children in need of special educational experiences is most important to each child.

Furthermore, this information gathered from contacts with parents and other agencies will be used to help determine present and future program needs as progress is made toward a goal of providing free appropriate public education to all handicapped children in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland and Hancock County Districts.

Information that could identify the handicapped individual is protected by the school district in accordance with the Family Rights and Privacy Act and EHAB.

Parents have the right to inspect information about a child and challenge its accuracy.

Persons with handicapped children who are 21 years old or younger, are encouraged to contact the Bay St. Louis-Waveland and Hancock County schools' Child Find coordinator Sherry M. Ponder, 740 Dunbar Avenue, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520, 467-1021 or 467-2031.

Ponder will assist parents in having their children evaluated and placed in, or referred to appropriate programs.

CLUBS, AUXILIARIES

American Legion Auxiliary
Unit 139

The monthly birthday party, sponsored by the Clement R. Bon Temps American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139, and co-hosted by Roslyn Weathers and Oris Planchard for the residents of the Hotel Reed Convalescent Home, was Thursday, Jan. 31.

Lena Mae Oustalet played the piano while Roslyn Weathers led the singing. Oris Planchard and Elaine Roberts went among the residents to visit and encourage them to join in the activity. Cella Autman, director of activity, had the dining room tastefully decorated in Mardi Gras colors and balloons to welcome the residents to an afternoon of fun and music.

As 'Happy Birthday' was sung, the recipients were handed gifts which were received with happy smiles.

With the cooperation of beautiful weather, a great crowd of residents assembled at the Hancock County Walking Track on Saturday, Feb. 2. They were there to honor the U.S. troops serving in Operation Desert Storm.

American Legion Posts 139 and 77 and their auxiliaries were well represented.

Everyone who attended this gathering seemed inspired with feelings of patriotism. The talks given by Brigadier General Wallace E. Farragut, retired, and Commander Jack O. Moody, head of manpower, personnel and training development at the Naval Oceanographic Command, stirred the listeners to applaud during several points.

"All of the people who came for this occasion were satisfied and in better spirits because of the explanations that were given to them," said Auxiliary Unit 139 spokesman Roslyn Weathers. "It was pledged that with prayers and support for our troops, they will not be forgotten."

BHS Spanish Club

Mississippi Coast
Crime Commission

The annual membership meeting of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission at Merchants Bank Building in Gulfport on Tuesday, Jan. 29, resulted in the election of Alicia R. Ellis, Pass Christian, president; David Washer, Jefferson Bank, Biloxi, vice president; Hugh Keating, Dukes, Dukes, Keating and Faneca, Attorneys, secretary; and John E. Montgomery, Montgomery & Daughter, Public Accountants, treasurer.

A wall plaque expressing appreciation for outstanding work was awarded outgoing president Alfred J. Levert II.

New directors elected include Steve Ford, Mississippi Power Company, and Bennie Williams, Williams Wrecking and Construction Co., Gulfport.

Jerry Brown, former chief U.S. probation officer for the Southern District of Mississippi, was named executive director of MCCC at the meeting. Brown retired from the Department of Justice post in late 1989 after serving 21 years "with honor and distinction."

Ellis and Brown presented the following as their plans for MCCC in 1991:

"We recognize that the only forces standing between law-abiding citizens and the criminal community are law enforcement agencies, prosecutors and our courts.

"We intend to involve the total community in assisting them in their efforts, especially in areas of drug abuse and juvenile gang activity.

"We also believe MCCC should help protect our community by monitoring regulations and processes involved in licensing and operating dockside and other legal gambling. We will become familiar with such requirements and insist on conformance by all parties to protect community interest.

"Increased MCCC activity requires increased funds. This means increased membership. We plan an active, energetic program in many areas. With the support of our directors, our members, and our communities, we can achieve civic improvement through citizen involvement."

Hancock Women's Club

The Hancock Women's Club will meet at 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 14 at the home of Julia Loup, 620 Central Avenue, Waveland. Loup, assisted by other board members, will serve a complimentary lunch after the meeting.

Please bring non-perishable food items for donation to the Food Pantry.

Salon 218
Eight and Forty

Partners of the Harrison County Salon 218 of the Eight and Forty met Monday, Jan. 31 at Joe Graham American Legion Post 119, Courthouse Road in Gulfport. Chapeau Lucille Boudreaux presided.

Boudreaux presented a brief history of Salon 218 for the benefit of new members. She noted Salon 218 had its beginning on Aug. 10, 1934 with seven members. Aims are to uphold the ideals and principles of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary; to strengthen the ties of affection that bind to parent organizations; to promote good fellowship and to assist in the prevention and control of tuberculosis, cystic fibrosis, lung and other respiratory diseases in children.

In keeping with these aims, partners voted to assist a local child who is afflicted with a respiratory illness; donate to the National Jewish Center, chapeau's special project and nurses scholarship.

Following the meeting, Boudreaux, Anna Gayaut and Genevieve Cole served king cake, chips and dips with cokes to those present. The next meeting will be Monday, Feb. 29 at 7 p.m. at Joe Graham American Legion Post 119 in Gulfport.

BUSINESS REVIEW

S.R. Chapman

Unique gifts at reasonable prices

If you were to describe S.R. Chapman in one word, that word would be "unique."

Don't let the elegant interior fool you. S.R. Chapman is not just for the elite. It offers gifts from 95 cents to $9,500. Owner/manager Starr Chapman said, "We try to appeal to all tastes and budgets."

S.R. Chapman offers a selection of sterling silver, 14k and 18k gold jewelry that ranges in price from $5 up. Chapman buys her items at low cost from Southern craftsmen of fine jewelry so that she can sell the rings, earrings, necklaces and other adornments for reasonable prices.

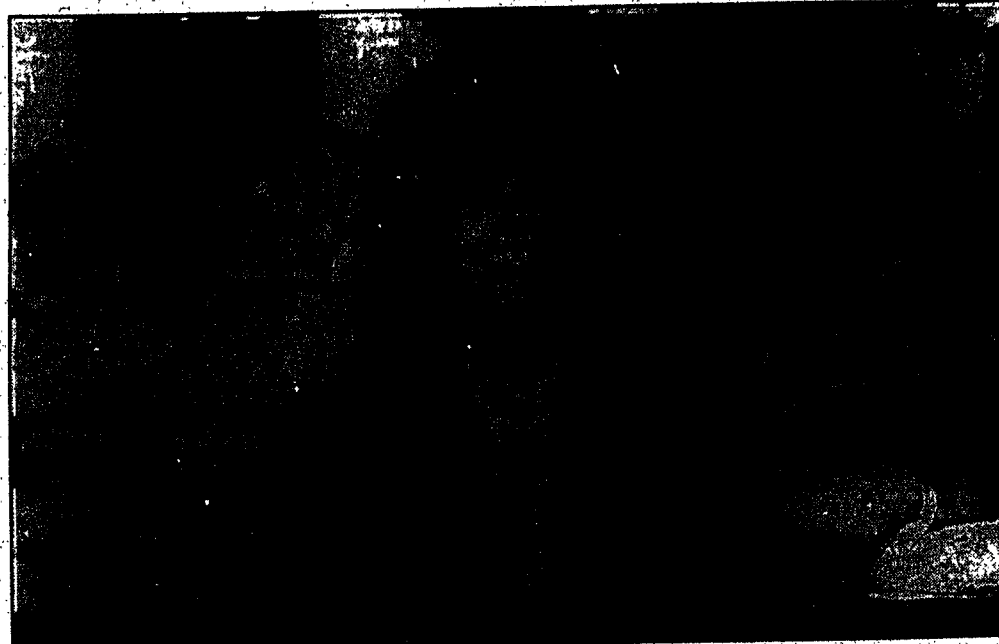

S.R. Chapman's jewelry has genuine fine gemstones and precious gems.

Chapman said, "We guarantee our products 100 percent. All our jewelry is real. If we say it's a ruby, it's a ruby."

"In addition, if we don't have something you want, we can get it within 48 hours."

S.R. Chapman also deals in custom-made jewelry items and handles jewelry repairs.

The gifts offered at S.R. Chapman include office items, crystal, porcelain, perfumes, artwork and tableware. Several fine crystal companies are represented, with items ranging from $3 to $30 and more.

S.R. Chapman owner/manager,

Starr Chapman

The porcelain in S.R. Chapman's inventory includes figurines from Hummels and the Golden Memories Collection by Lladro.

"Fun" serving trays and ice buckets with matching glasses are also among the gifts just waiting to be given.

S.R. Chapman is the only local source for Hove' perfumes, body talcs and soaps. Hove', a 60-year-old French Quarter company that still uses original hand-mixed formulas for its fragrances, boasts a mail-order clientele of more than 30,000 customers.

Hove' perfumes and body talcs include Magnolia, Tea Olive, Pirate's Gold, Camellia, Vous-Souvenez-Vous? (Do You Remember?) and one especially appropriate for this season, Carnaval. The soaps offered are Magnolia, Tea Olive and Vetiver.

In addition to jewelry and gifts, S.R. Chapman offers gift certificates, present wrapping, shipping and UPS delivery.

So, if you're looking for that special gift, try S.R. Chapman at 603 Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis.
